Chairman's Message

Our Tattersall's Plate and James Barnes Plate Meeting was held at Randwick on Saturday, September 13, and once again a good crowd of around 17,000 thoroughly enjoyed a wonderful day's racing highlighted, of course, by the appearance of Kingston Town and Tulmax, both winners on the day! Congratulations to all winners, but particularly to Mrs Lenehan, the owner of In Luck, who took home the Tattersall's Plate. The occasion saw the fiftieth running of the James Barnes Plate which was won by High Mystery. A full report of the meeting appears in this edition of the Magazine. Don't forget if you would like to be invited to the luncheon for our next meeting on New Year's Day, then please leave your name at the office.

The Club was honoured at a cocktail party held in the committee room on September 16, when Lois Angles O'Neill, daughter of the late Cyril Angles, handed over to the Club for its historical records, tapes of broadcasts of Tattersall's Cup and Chelmsford Stakes meetings held during the 1930s. The tape was suitably introduced by Mrs O'Neill in a most professional way. On behalf of the Club I expressed our appreciation to the family for the gesture.

The new Paramount exercise machine costing $10,000 has been installed in the Athletic Department on the third floor with a chart explaining its use. Manufactured in America the machine is one of very few in Australia and was purchased after the Committee gave consideration to several that were available. Professional tuition can be made available — please enquire at the office.

It is pleasing to see former Chairman Jim Comans back in action again after a short stay in hospital, as it is to see the wonderful recovery that Tony McSweeney has made after a lengthy stay in hospital. He is now at home getting stronger every day and hopefully will soon be back in the Club, but (unfortunately) is still giving some terrible tips! All the best to you both for continued rapid improvement.

○ Congratulations to member, Sir Nicholas Shehadie on his appointment as Manager of Australia's Rugby Union side for 1981 which includes a tour to the United Kingdom. They could not have chosen a better man for the job as Nick himself captained Australia in Test matches. Best wishes on behalf of all members, Nick.

On behalf of the Committee and members, I express deepest sympathy to member Doug McDonald and his wife Margo on the tragic loss of their youngest son Lachlan, involved in a fatal car accident on the Pacific Highway at Wahroonga on Friday night, September 26. Lachlan had often used the facilities of the club with his father. I am proud to be able to say that I had known him since he was born and always found him to be a young man with a great sense of responsibility and initiative. He was well regarded by his employers where he worked in the publicity department at Greater Union Theatres. We sincerely trust that the strong religious faith of Doug and Margo and their family will help to see them through this tragic time.

Keith H. Moremon

I would like to extend Season's Greetings to all Members — and a wish for good health and happiness in 1981.

The Resistance Leg Press, part of the Sports Trainer.

$10,000 SPORTS TRAINER IN CLUB MEMBERS' ATHLETIC DEPT.

It's the only conditioning machine with progressive variable resistance incorporating the unilateral lifting system (Uni-Flex).

Extensive bio-mechanical studies revealed the exciting scientific advantages of this keeping fit machine.

It's available to members in the Athletic Section. An extensive report and guide for all members will be produced in forthcoming Journals. Go in and inspect it today! A full course of instruction is available.

INTRODUCE A NEW MEMBER

Your Club offers so much. Tattersall's Club is a mecca for all. A business lunch is something to remember and it's done so well.

Heated swimming pool is the largest in town with a back-up modern athletic department equipment.

Social and family occasion dining is a pleasure. Various sporting sections — golf, bowls, snooker — are all part of your club.

Introduce a friend and make him a member — share the happiness of Tattersall's Club.

DIGGING DEEP FOR SOLDIERS

Advertising expenditure for the Defence Department will be more than $7 million this year. Nearly half of this — $3 million plus — has been allocated to the recruiting campaign to increase the strength of the Army Reserve to 30,000.

On a very conservative estimate this represents a cost per recruit of $3,000. That is for the "part time" soldier. Full-time recruits come at an advertising cost of $670 each.

BEWARE THE WOUNDED RACEHORSE ... OR TRAINER!

Racing is a hazardous game. Jockeys risk life and limb every race. Australia's greatest trainer, Tom Smith, is recovering from being kicked by a horse; he sustained a broken hip.

He trained Kingston Town winner of the Chelmsford.

Here is Tom limping up to the presentation at Randwick. Keep up the great spirit, Tom!

HOW CAN THEY CALL HIM "CRAZY"?

Crack American jockey Angel "Crazy" Cordero, recently took part in the imaginative Britain-United States five-man jockey confrontation overseas.

"Crazy" has won races worth more than $5 million in each of the past three American seasons, so at the basic 10 per cent of prizemoney fee, his personal earnings have exceeded $500,000 each year.

OS BATES

SPRING RACING AT RANDWICK WITH TATTERSALL'S

A GOOD representation of racing and general club members were in attendance. The fine programme arranged by the racing committee attracted quality horses with a balanced programme.

Kingston Town strolled in to win the Chelmsford beating Ming Dynasty. "Ming" had his revenge a few days later when he won the 1980 Caulfield Cup (for the second time) defeating Hyperno and "The King".

Tullmax, the country loved champion, won the Tramway with an excellent performance. The head and head finish had the crowd cheering with Iko failing by a short half head.

It was a happy Tattersall's win for Tom and Lois Whittle when their smart filly, Hanalei, established a race record, 1m. 10.4s., winning the Roman Consul Stakes.

Chairman Keith Moremon welcomed guests and paid tribute to trainer Tom Smith who attended on crutches. Tom has the fighting spirit and talent that has taken him to the top in his profession.

Mrs Keith Moremon entertained members ladies at a special luncheon. Committeemen's wives attending with party included Mrs David Dransfield, Mrs Peter Twigg, Mrs John McKell, Mrs Tony McSweeney and Mrs Tony Miller.

It was pleasing to see Mrs Tony McSweeney and her daughter Angela (Mrs Love). Tony was due for admission to hospital but in true Tony style he insisted on Molly attending. He has made good progress. All members wish him well.

Assisting the chairman, the racing committee, Treasurer David Dransfield, Bruce McHugh, Norman Rogers and Peter Twigg are to be congratulated on a job well done.

Secretary Norman Smith was ill with influenza on the day but would not "scratch". His attention to detail was excellent.

The trophies were of the highest order. Member Brian O'Connor produced sparkling quality that pleased the winners.

Owner of "In Luck", Tattersall's Plate winner, Mrs V. J. Lenehan with her husband, receives the beautiful trophy from Chairman Keith Moremon. Winner trained by T. J. Smith.

From left: Chairman Keith Moremon with Peter Barnes, jockey Colin Minter, and Robert Howell. The winner "High Mystery" is owned by K. F. and R. J. Howell, trained by R. J. Tilley.

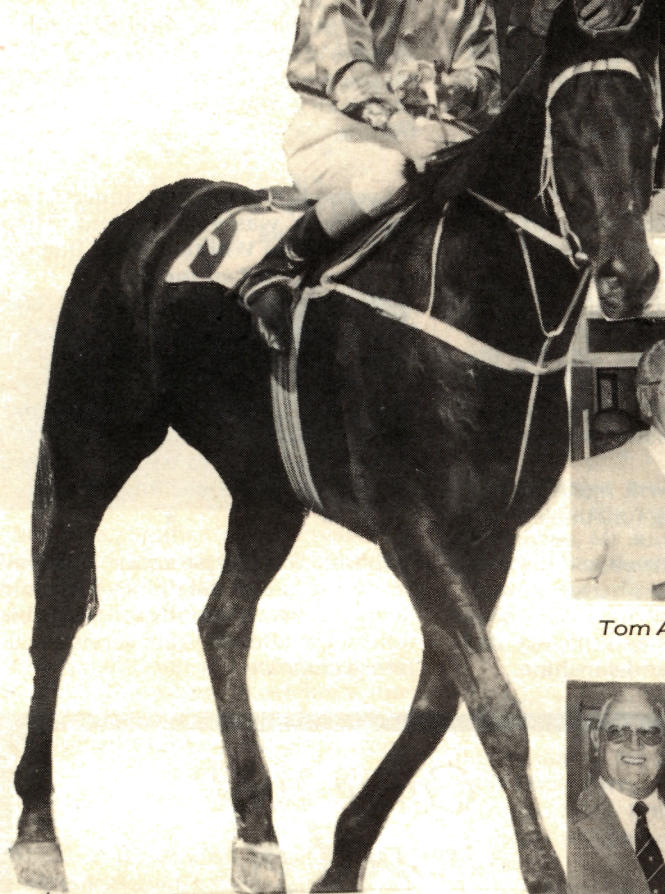

Mrs Keith Moremon sashed "Kingston Town", Chelmsford winner. Part-owners Mr and Mrs D. H. Haines look on.

WINING & DINING & CLUB NEWS

Club member Gordon Spence and his wife Bille recently returned from a most enjoyable trip to Alaska. They went from Vancouver on the "Prisenden", which does over a thousand miles, mainly on inland waterways, up the west coast to Juneau and Glacier Bay. This is a most scenic trip, somewhat like a long Hawkesbury River voyage, only with ice-capped mountains on either side!

They also did a journey by coach visiting the famous old Dan McGrew, Dawson City and Fairbanks. Because of the permafrost for seven months of the year, it is impossible to bury the dead and bodies are kept in a deep freeze until the thaw comes.

In winter it goes as far as 108 degrees F below freezing.

The glaciers are a most spectacular sight as the ship gets within a stone's throw of them. They are some hundreds of feet high and miles long. Amidst the icebergs many seals can be seen sunbaking on the ice.

In Fairbanks and Anchorage, etc., aeroplanes on pontoons and in winter, skis are used instead of cars and motor boats, and it is usual to see planes moored to the banks instead of boats.

Tattersall's member and chairman of A.J.C. Jim Carr can take a bow for a fine speech at the spring carnival meeting.

The A.J.C. invited retired chairman of the S.T.C. George Ryder to present a trophy.

Introducing him, Jim was able to give an outline on George's wealth of involvement in racing. George replied and spoke from the heart and made a fine speech. Racing is enriched by men like George Ryder.

* * * *

Genial Geoff Eastment and Bill Gordon with their wives were A.J.C. committee hosts to owners and trainers at a special function during the spring carnival meeting.

It was staged in the adapted tea room area. The room has an old world feeling about it — high ceiling, antique furniture and a gracious feeling about the whole scene.

Air conditioning will make this an ideal room for racing functions.

* * * *

Member John Stormon and his wife journeyed north for a pharmaceutical conference. It was not unusual to meet another club member enjoying the bliss of the Bananaland sunshine.

Genial Ted Wales was there and took the Stormons under his wing.

He was a great host. Ted asked to be remembered to his many friends "down here".

He has plenty of them too, especially in the A.H.A.

The Stormons recently celebrated 50 years of married happiness. It was a reason for a complimentary party at Tattersall's Club with many good friends.

* * * *

Everybody likes to be a winner! Great excitement was very evident when Lois and Tom Whittle's mare Hanalie won a couple of spring races.

Charming and attractive Lois jumped for joy as her horse beat a smart field at Randwick.

Tom, in his own quiet and unassuming way, said: "We better have a drink, eh?"

May they go on to win many more races with the trainer Neville Begg.

John G. Stephenson enjoyed tendering a farewell dinner to Harold Keep and his wife Molly following his retirement after 25 years service with John's company.

A member accepted the chairman's invitation to go to the Tattersall's Race Day.

The member and wife are not racegoers and they decided to have a look around the horse stalls.

"M'm m'm Casablanca!" wifey whispered in his ear as she nestled near him.

"Which one is that?" he says.

"You dope!" says Mum. "I'm talking about the after-shave lotion you're wearing!"

Mrs Ern. Smith, on left, was the guest of Mrs John McKell at Tattersall's race meeting. "Candy" and Peg had a very happy day in the party.

* * * *

Phillip Loiterton and wife Jan found the club a fine venue to celebrate the eleventh birthday of their son Ben.

George and Edwina Loiterton were there too to join in this happy Tattersall's family night.

* * * *

Member Mr Robert Bookallil and family entertained a fellow member of Tattersall's Club, Mr Peter Bradfield and family. Riverview beat St Joseph's at football this year.

Peter (ex-Riverview) and Robert (St. Joseph's) are friendly rivals so it provided a good excuse for a fine dinner.

* * * *

Committeeman John McKell loves his bowls. Your editor witnessed a closely contested fun game over at the City Bowling Club.

John and the smiling Harold Hill managed to take a lottery ticket from their opponents Fred Barbent and Cary Consent.

Great to see good chaps enjoying themselves.

* * * *

Member Doug Hawke arranged a fine dinner party to celebrate daughter Jennifer's 18th birthday. The club is ideal for such celebrations.

Quiet styled bookmaker George Rohanna with wife Mary gathered some of their family for a happy club evening. Michael, Peter, John, Anthony and Victoria were all there.

Attractive Sue Bacon was in the party too. The Rohannas are great family people.

* * * *

Member Ron Grimes and his wife plus Mr and Mrs Laurie Chappell were in a very happy party to celebrate the engagement of Linda Chappell and Peter Grimes.

May the future hold great happiness for them.

* * * *

That very happy gem man Neville O'Neill arranged a farewell lunch to join John McGowan due to go back to California, U.S.A.

In the party were some of his friends included were Max Walker, Ken Hunter and Frank Roberts.

John's horse Kristy Lane races here and is a great excuse for him to make flying visits to Australia to check its progress. And enjoy our club.

* * * *

Ken Turner and wife were hosts celebrating the visit of friends from Melbourne, Mr and Mrs Warren Craig and their three children.

They had a very happy evening in the dining area at Tattersall's Club with the Turners.

* * * *

David Tarrant, that fine Tattersall's club man, entertained daughter and her husband, Mr and Mrs Paul Kelly with Dave Tarrant's grand-daughters Joan and Mary. It was Mrs Paul Kelly's birthday so the party spirit was all there.

* * * *

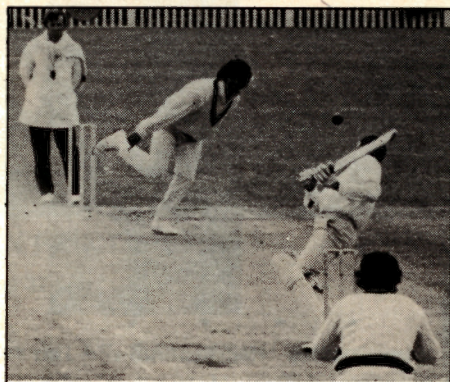

Popular member Sir Clyde Kennedy is chairman of the Sydney Turf Club for a second term.

Hearty congratulations, Clyde, from all your friends in the racing scene — it's well merited.

* * * *

Christopher Dobbins and Ernie McCamley invited friends to celebrate the 70th birthday of Mr Peter Lindsay, also the birthday of his daughter Margaret.

All their families were present including Mrs Mabel Lindsay, Peter's wife, daughters Margaret and Robyn, sons-in-law Ernie McCamley and Christopher Dobbins, grand-children Peter, John, Sarah and Adam and family friend Harry Buttle.

David throws one down on English soil on 1972 tour.

MEET CLUB MEMBER

DAVID COLLEY

EXECUTIVE AND SPORTSMAN

Selected in 1962 for the Mosman first grade team at the ripe old age of 15, he was considered to be one of the youngest first graders of all time. He has never missed a first grade game since, except for first class, international and more recently TCN-9 commentary commitments.

In 1969-70 he was selected for NSW and apart from injury never missed a first class game until the latter part of last season.

In 1972 he toured England with the Australian team and played three Tests and was 12th man in two Tests. His back was injured in England and he missed the tour of the West Indies.

David has taken around 250 first class wickets and scored 3,000 first class runs.

In 1976-77 he captained the NSW team for the second half of the season. He won the Daily Mirror/Caltex Sports Star of the Month Award twice in four years.

In terms of other sport, he was selected for NSW in baseball but never actually played a game because of cricket commitments.

David is a cricket correspondent for 2UE and has been for the past two summers. He covers all facets of cricket.

He admits to liking golf and playing it badly.

David's name is on a range of cricket equipment for youngsters marketed under the name of "Turp" and has been on the TCN-9 cricket commentary team for the last two summers.

On the business side, he has worked in the advertising industry for the past 17 years and is currently employed at the Leo Burnett Company — a top agency.

He is married with two young children.

Mrs Tony McSweeney and daughter, Angela (Mrs P. Love) attended the Tattersall's race meeting.

Sir Talbot Duckmanton, Jim Comans and Tony McSweeney who, during the past months have undergone heart operations, are now on the road to good health whilst our genial starter of club swimming races, Max Sernack, has been hospitalised with a leg operation.

Congratulations to Doug Prowse, whose son Barry married lovely Margo Williams (daughter of Margaret and the late Roy Williams) and niece of Ken and Alice Williams.

A popular win in the billiard handicap by Morrie Anderson. He's a great club man. Keeps in touch with racing, a regular second floor specialist. He gives full support to the swimming section, too.

THE HONOLULU CLUB

SKI CLUB HITS TOP SEASON

by Ken Finn

The 1980 season was one of the best of the past decade. Not only were snow conditions ideal but the two main resorts provided much needed improved facilities for skiers.

At Thredbo the new Snow Guns chairlift enabled skiers to get up to the snow with only occasional delays and the new Black Sallies restaurant at the top of this chair has increased the on-snow eating and toilet facilities.

At Perisher completion of the first stage of the complex providing restaurants, under-cover ticket sales, chemist shop, etc., gave skiers some of the comforts that have been needed for so long.

With these developments completed and others contemplated for next season, it is hard to understand the various ski groups complaining so bitterly about the increased price for day tickets.

At Tattersall's Ski Club the end of the season was an opportune time to make some committee changes. After three years as president Ken Finn has handed over the reins to Peter Evans. Anthony Berkman is the new secretary and Peter Burrows remains treasurer. The committee is George Andrews and Graham Smith.

Planning is under way for the 1981 season and subject to obtaining permission to again have the use of facilities at Roslyn and Warruna these two weeks of ski-ing will remain the features of our activity. It is also planned to add a "mixed" week late in the season with the opportunity for cross-country or downhill ski-ing. We will be giving you full details well before the end of summer so that those wishing to ski with us can plan in advance.

In the meantime, the usual crop of Australians will be heading for the ski slopes of Europe, America, and Canada during January and February, 1981. All tour operators report heavy bookings so if you are thinking of going overseas to ski during our summer months, you would be wise to finalise arrangements as quickly as possible.

Those not using their equipment before next winter should take it along to their friendly ski shop and have bindings cleaned, edges sharpened, skis repaired and waxed, before storing away in a cool dry place during the off season.

Obituary

VIV CHALWIN O.B.E.

Sad news of the month was the death of Viv Chalwin, O.B.E., whose interest in swimming and athletics is a great loss in Australian sporting spheres. Our deepest sympathy and condolences are extended to his wife and family.

JACK PHILLIPS

Few members of Tattersall's knew that bookmaker Jack was awarded the Military Cross for bravery in action at Gallipoli and it was only his close friends who were aware of the award.

He travelled thousands of miles fielding at racecourses all over Australia.

He raced some fine performers amongst whom were Gaine Carrington who won our Chelmsford Stakes. He landed the Caulfield Cup of 1933, Peter Jackson won the Moonee Valley Cup, Synagogue won the Epsom Hcp and Futurity, and his hurdler, Prismatic, won the 1934 Grand National.

Jack was well versed in racing lore and his anecdotes in his association with Cecil Godby and Eric Connolly were an absolute treat.

We extend kind thoughts to his wife and family.

ROWAN HUNT

Rowan Hunt, a real second floor regular, died suddenly on September 6. His long association with Grace Bros. gathered him many friends.

Rowan was a great competitor and played well in the snooker competitions for Tattersall's.

To his wife, Kitty, and family we extend condolences.

As good friend John Peoples quipped: "As a cueist like Lycidas, he has not left his peer."

BILLIARDS & SNOOKER

by SYD LANE

By the time you read these notes the singles tournaments and championships will be completed; but the pairs tournament looks like continuing until Christmas, and possibly into the New Year.

Many exciting matches in the snooker Calcutta Tournament have been played since last going to press, the most notable being:

Keith Moremon's win over fellow committeeman Peter McGrath; Tony Murphy (Doug Herps), Graham Molloy (Bruce Horne), Len Williams (George Mousally), Arthur O'Connor (Len Williams). Losers names are in brackets.

The quarter final results were as follows:

John McSweeney defeated Harold Cruickshanks; Arthur O'Connor defeated Len Williams; Tony Murphy defeated George Bloomfield; Graham Molloy defeated Lestor Lill, leaving the semi-finals to be played between John who meets Arthur, and Tony who meets Graham. The two winners will, of course, battle out the final.

The billiards tournament has been completed with a very meritorious win to Maurie Anderson who downed the evergreen George Mousally. Maurie had a handicap of plus 160, whilst George started from 75 behind! George played well to catch Maurie and the scores stood at 246 to 248 in Maurie's favour when he finished it off by potting the red. Congratulations Maurice.

LAKES TEST TATTERSALL'S GOLFERS

With empty stomachs and falling temperatures, 70 hardy souls faced the testing Lakes layout and local knowledge was the order of the day, with almost every event going to a member of the host club.

"Four-putt" Sid Thomson took out the members' singles with a fine score of 40 points with his partner Ken Murden, another Lakes member, winning the visitors' singles with 43 points.

The four-ball was won by Kevin West (The Lakes) and partner Peter Fenton with 46 points, narrowly defeating Phil Byrnes and Gordon Salier on 45, with Col Pearce and Trevor Davis also on 45, but losing on a count-back.

There were many other scores of square or better despite the conditions, which were testing, and the course preparation that was being carried out for this month's Australian Open Championships. We thank The Lakes for the opportunity to play their fine layout and wish them every success for the forthcoming Open.

Peter Ashby says:

HANDBALL IS A GREAT CLUB SPORT!

Take a group of graded Tattersall's handball players entered for the Club Championships, make a meticulously graded draw and produce instant inertia.

Friends will play themselves to a standstill but if opposed to each other in a handball draw, immediately become disaffected. A handballer can develop, at the drop of a hat, more panes than the Crystal Palace.

Tattersall's Plate and the N.S.W. singles and doubles championships are areas of handball activity where somnolence has not been supreme.

The Tattersall's Plate final will be played on the handball presentations night. There will be more of this tournament reported in the next issue of the magazine.

Noel Vella, a member of both Bondi and Tamarama Clubs, proved the big improver in this year's State Championships and he figured prominently in both singles and doubles. His 1980 record already reads: Tattersall's Plate finalist, Tamarama singles champion, runner-up to Jim Robison in the Bondi singles championship.

Tattersall's players disposed of during early rounds in both championships were Michael O'Dea, Charles Robinson, Bill Blakemore, Ken Glass, Bill Sellen, Tony Baine, Paul Vrachras and Alex Hillston.

Ray Hopkins, partnered by Gary Stubbs, of Clovelly, were our sole representatives in the finals.

The Hopkins-Stubbs partnership enjoyed a relatively easy journey through to the final while their opponents, Noel Vella and Reg Chappell, survived the difficult obstacles including a close shave against John Forde and Tim O'Brien, of Bondi, in a match that went into advantage play and was decided at 32-30.

The final set was a closely fought encounter that provided the large crowd of spectators with the best of doubles handball. The scores were level at 5-all and then at 10-all with neither side enjoying more than a 2-point advantage.

Noel then gained what appeared would be the winning break at 14-11 but Ray Hopkins and Gary Stubbs really turned on the power to go into a 16-14 lead which virtually won them the set and the title. Reg's service was disastrous and allowed Ray to serve with a lead of 20-15. The final score was 21-16, 13-21, 21-19 to give Ray Hopkins and Gary Stubbs their second doubles title.

VELLA NEW SINGLES CHAMP

Noel Vella, although a pronounced odds-on favourite to win the State singles championship, encountered some stiff opposition from the 1979 champion, Frank Caldwell, on his way to the 1980 title.

Early round results, some quite unexpected, were: Don Hudson v. Reg Chappel 31-23, John Forde v. Bob Green 33-31, Noel Vella v. Laurie Collins 31-29, Noel Vella v. John Forde 32-30, Frank Caldwell v. Ray Hopkins 31-21.

This fiery encounter, which drew continuous applause from the gallery which seemed to inspire the finalists to greater heights of handball fireworks.

In the final set, Frank took an early lead but failed to maintain his early advantage and suffered the fate of a player attempting to regain supremacy. While he surrendered his claim to the title he showed the crowd how he won the 1979 title and how he has maintained a prominent position in handball for so many years.

Noel served while leading 21-15 and the crown was his at 21-17.

Handball received a great boost with these finals won by players who prefer to win points by attacking play.

Tony Baine, John Forde, Bill Blakemore and Bob Green put the writing on the wall for future State championships.

The return of Neil and Ron Rogers and a 100 per cent fit Michael O'Dea could auger well for tighter competition and different results.

SWIM FLYING START

by Sam Block

The swimming club jumped off to a flying start for the 1980-81 season on Tuesday, September 30, when a large field saddled up for the initial event over 40 yards.

Thus commenced the battle over the next nine months for the Silver Sharpe Trophy donated by A. J. "Tony" McSweeney, the Tom Powell Trophy for individual winners of singles events, the Jack Mandel family clashes, plus monthly point scores donated by David and John Keating in memory of Leo Keating and J.M.S. Trophies by Norm Rogers.

You'd think there was a million dollars hanging on the results from the energy and enthusiasm that the lads put into their efforts to win these monthly events.

At the conclusion of these monthly point scores the club championships take place. Club, donated by M. Bartley; A grade, Les Tidmarsh; B grade donor W. Kendall, plus Ted Joye Honour Handicap, donor Ian Joye.

For the benefit of club members who have not yet tasted the joys of the races it might be mentioned that races are weekly handicaps over 40 yards, heats on Tuesday and finals on Thursdays at 1.15 p.m.

New members will be cordially welcomed. All that is necessary is to do a time trial and enjoy the fun and games amongst a crowd of fine sportsmen.

The first race of the season saw the return of Jesse Bishop, Bill Debney and John Brady, with Bishop and Debney winning their finals in great style. Other winners were John McKeon, Tony Berkman, John Nicholas and Bryce Ross-Jones. But the superlative performance was that of Cec Abotomey who left his opponents floundering in his wake, costing him a modest two seconds off his handicap.

Amongst a record roll up on Tuesday, 14th, were Paul Blake, Ron Rogers and Phillip King, whilst newcomers welcomed were Bob King, David Hawkins, Bill Currie and Pat Power, all of whom will make their presence felt in the near future.

Fast winning times were Mike McCormack 20-9 and 21, Antony Berkman 21, and John Nicholas 21-1.

By the time this reaches print the swimming club presentation evening will have been held, Report in the next issue.

Epicureans visited the Opera House for their September Meeting.

Beautiful evening, delightful surroundings, a good meal, and over 80 members attending contributed to a fine evening.

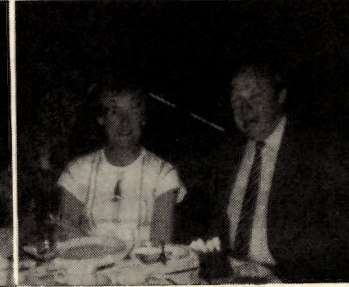

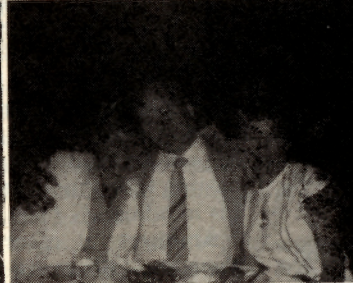

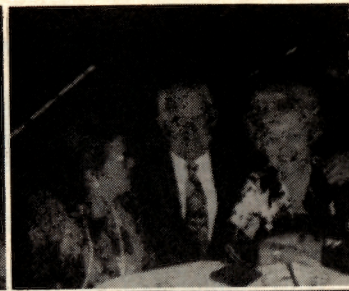

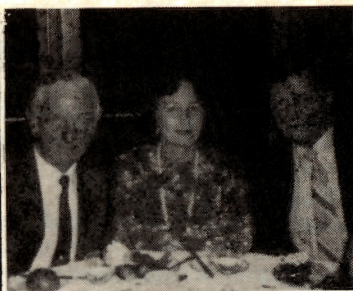

Tattersall's Treasurer, David Dransfield, and his merry mates were there. It was a good club members and friends evening and one to remember.

CREDIT BETTING FOR MEMBERS

Members may not be aware of the availability of credit betting with Tattersall's Club Bookmakers. It has been traditional for Club Bookmakers to provide credit arrangements to fellow members. Club Bookmakers may be ascertained from advertisements below and by display on their cash bags at the races or through inquiry at Tattersall's Club Office.

To establish credit a member need simply approach the desired bookmaker and introduce himself as a Club Member. Credit is then established and settling arrangements will be made. Normally settling is conducted in the Club Room each Monday (or Tuesday if a holiday weekend). It can also be arranged at the next metropolitan race meeting or by mail. Our Bookmakers cater for wagering on both local and interstate meetings as well as feature double events and always look forward to meeting Club Members at the races.

Club Med New Caledonia. The South Pacific's newest resort

From $538 you can have seven days of fun and pleasure at Club Med New Caledonia. A holiday that not only includes airfare and accommodation but many other no-cost extras as well. Such as three banquet-like meals every day with French wine at lunch and dinner. Sports such as windsurfing, archery, tennis, snorkelling and sailing on Hobie Cats and Lasers. Classical music concerts at sunset, cabarets and floorshows and a disco that doesn't stop until you do.

FROM
EX SYDNEY

Even a Mini Club that takes care of the kids. The only extras you have to pay for are personal purchases, excursions and drinks from the bar. It's an extraordinary holiday for the price for an ordinary one.
